

Fields Auto Group Compliance

Addendum to Service Provider Agreement

Federal regulations known as the "Safeguards Rule" (16 CFR Part 314) require that we obtain from all Service Providers a written agreement to protect the confidentiality of our customer nonpublic information they are allowed to access pursuant to the underlying contract for Services (the "Agreement") from us during our business relationship. Capitalized terms in this Addendum that are not otherwise defined herein or in the Agreement shall have the meaning given in the GLBA.

This Addendum is between FIELDS AUTO GROUP, (hereinafter "Company") and GOTO COMMUNICATIONS, INC., (hereafter "Provider"). It shall be effective as of the date the document is executed below by Provider. It shall remain in effect until either revoked in writing, or automatically if the business relationship between Company and Provider comes to an end. The promise regarding confidentiality and duty to return information shall survive any termination. This Addendum supplements and amends the Agreement between Company and Provider subject to the Safeguards Rule. If any provision of this Agreement is found to be invalid, all other terms of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

Provider represents and warrants to Company that it has implemented and presently maintains safeguards designed to ensure the security and confidentiality of nonpublic personal information collected in its Services environment by Company about its customers (as detailed on Provider's Trust Center, see applicable Technical and Organizational Measures aka "TOMs"), and defined in 16 CFR 314.2 ("Customer Information") that Company may allow Provider to access during its business relationship as further described in the Agreement. Provider represents and warrants that these safeguards meet all applicable local, state, and federal requirements regarding administrative, technical, and physical safeguards as well as all applicable industry standards.

Provider agrees that Company's Customer Information will be held in strict confidence and accessed only for the business purpose of between Company and Provider, as described in the Agreement. Provider agrees to protect this Customer Information according to commercially reasonable standards and no less rigorously than it protects its own customers' confidential information.

Provider agrees that it will maintain all Company's Customer Information as necessary to provide services to Company and to return or destroy all customer information received from Company upon either completion of the contract or upon termination as described in the applicable in the applicable TOMs available on Provider's Trust Center.

Provider will, upon request of the Company, but no more than once per year, complete a Risk Assessment questionnaire or provide similar documentation to support Company's compliance with the applicable provisions of 16 CFR 314.4(a)(3) and 16 CFR 314.4(b).

Should Provider violate any material terms of this Addendum (notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other agreement between Company and Provider), then Company may immediately terminate the relationship provided Provider has an opportunity to cure within 30 days of receipt of written notice. Company may seek injunctive relief, in addition to a claim for damages, to prevent or remedy any breach of the confidentiality obligations of this Addendum.

Service Provider hereby acknowledges and agrees to the above Addendum:
